Our Calling

We have already celebrated the Descent of the Holy Spirit on the Apostles and are now in the Afterglow of this great Feast of Pentecost. In today's Gospel we hear the call of Jesus to those who would follow Him, fisherman, at first instructing them to take up their nets and follow Him, becoming fishers of men. You see Jesus needed helpers and went out to find them. He chose ordinary people like us to respond with their whole hearts, making them extraordinary by His grace, in order to accomplish His purposes.

We look at the lives of those who followed Him initially, Simon, who became Peter, "The Rock", upon which the Church of Rome rested, Andrew the great missionary and the patron of the Church of Constantinople, John who became the patron of the Church in Ephesus and was titled, "the theologian", as we understand it to this day. You see ordinary men who by their work transformed the entire world for Jesus, becoming, "fishers" of men and women ushering them to the Kingdom of God.

Every life, whether of a man or women, young or old, rich or poor, educated or uneducated can be transformed into a calling. Every task, whether that of teacher or a student, a professional businessman, a homemaker, a chef, entrepreneur, athlete, musician, sportsman etc. can be experienced as God's call.

The essential key is closeness to God, for it transforms ordinary tasks into extraordinary ones by God's grace when we conscientiously place our lives in God's hands through faith, when we seek God's purposes in our tasks, when we recognize their usefulness from God's viewpoint, and when we accomplish them as service to others for the glory of God. # Hymns and Readings for Sunday, June 26

Tone 1 Troparion (Resurrection)

When the stone had been sealed by the Jews, while the soldiers were guarding Thy most pure body, Thou didst rise on the third day, O Savior, granting life to the world. The powers of heaven therefore cried to Thee, O Giver of Life: “Glory to Thy Resurrection, O Christ! Glory to Thy Kingdom!// Glory to Thy dispensation, O Thou Who lovest mankind!”

Tone 8 Troparion (All Saints of America)

As the bountiful harvest of Thy sowing of salvation, the lands of North America offer to Thee, O Lord, all the saints who have shone in them. By their prayers keep the Church and our land in abiding peace// through the Theotokos, O most Merciful One!

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

Tone 1 Kontakion (Resurrection)

As God, Thou didst rise from the tomb in glory, raising the world with Thyself. Human nature praises Thee as God, for death has vanished. Adam exults, O Master! Eve rejoices, for she is freed from bondage and cries to Thee:// “Thou art the Giver of Resurrection to all, O Christ!”

Now and ever and unto ages of ages. Amen.

Tone 3 Kontakion (All Saints of America)

Today the choir of Saints who were pleasing to God in the lands of North America now stands before us in the Church and invisibly prays to God for us.

With them the Angels glorify Him, and all the Saints of the Church of Christ keep festival with them;// and together they all pray for us to the Pre-eternal God.

Tone 1 Prokeimenon (Resurrection)

Let Thy mercy, O Lord, be upon us / as we have set our hope on Thee! (Ps. 32:22)

Epistle of the Saturday (Romans 2:10-16)

but glory, honor, and peace to everyone who works what is good, to the Jew first and also to the Greek. For there is no partiality with God.

For as many as have sinned without law will also perish without law, and as many as have sinned in the law will be judged by the law (for not the hearers of the law are just in the sight of God, but the doers of the law will be justified; for when Gentiles, who do not have the law, by nature do the things in the law, these, although not having the law, are a law to themselves, who show the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witness, and between themselves their thoughts accusing or else excusing them) in the day when God will judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ, according to my gospel.

Gospel of the Sunday (Matthew 4:18-23)

And Jesus, walking by the Sea of Galilee, saw two brothers, Simon called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea; for they were fishermen. Then He said to them, “Follow Me, and I will make you fishers of men.” They immediately left their nets and followed Him.

Going on from there, He saw two other brothers, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in the boat with Zebedee their father, mending their nets. He called them, and immediately they left the boat and their father, and followed Him.

And Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all kinds of sickness and all kinds of disease among the people.

Communion Hymn

Praise the Lord from the heavens, praise Him in the highest! (Ps 148:1) Rejoice in the Lord, O ye righteous; praise befits the just! (Ps 32/33:1) Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

North American Saints

Today is also the Feast of the Saints of North America, a special day set aside following Pentecost to celebrate the lives of the saints who have touched our continent. Saints whether from Russia, Volynia, Galicia, Uhorschina, Serbia, Alaska, Lebanon, Syria, the Carribean, who have taken upon themselves the tasks that God has given them, bringing many to the Holy Orthodox faith.

St. Herman of Alaska, a simple monk toiled in Spruce Island for decades to help in every aspect of life. St. Nicholas of Zhica, while still suffering from the physical tortures of the concentration camps, came to Pennsylvania to teach young American boys the truths of our faith, preparing them for the priesthood. St. Raphael of Brooklyn as well as St. Alexis of Wilkes-Barre worked in teaching the faith to the newly arrived immigrants who founded Churches across the entire length of this country. St. Matushka Olga from Alaska who nurtured the native Yupik speaking people of the Three rivers in Alaska about the Love of God.

These are the ordinary men and women who became not only extraordinary but “saints”, in the Church in America, and yes there are many more to come, who also likewise struggled in the early days to administer to the faithful.

So as we celebrate this Sunday of the Saints of North America let us remember how they responded to the “call” of Christ and maybe we too might be called in a similar way to bring all peoples to the knowledge of truth.. (LAF)
